

2010 CITIZEN OF THE YEAR NOMINATION FORM

2009 CITIZEN OF THE YEAR WINNER: BRAD WOOD

The Gold Beach Citizen of the Year will be selected from among written nominations submitted. Nominations may be submitted by any interested party, however self-nomination will NOT be accepted. Selection of the finalists and winner will be done by a sub-committee of the Gold Beach Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors with consultation from Chamber members as the sub-committee deems appropriate and/or necessary.

Mandatory criteria which must be met to be considered:

- The nominated person must be a resident (at least part-time) within the Central Curry County area, defined roughly as Arizona Beach to the north, Pistol River to the south, and the Agness area to the east.
- The nominee can be a volunteer, elected official, or paid person or private citizen who provides “above and beyond” service of a civic nature to the community as a whole.

Attributes to be judged:

(It is not necessary for the nominee to have all the following attributes to be considered. These are guidelines for purposes of giving the selections committee the most complete information possible upon which to base a decision.)

- Civic activities can be local or extend beyond local confines, to national or even international levels.
- Civic participation on boards, etc. and its impact on the community.
- Personal/professional accomplishments.
- Initiation of programs or ideas for community betterment.
- Demonstration of an exceptional or exemplary attitude.
- Abilities/skills used to contribute to the project or community.
- Overall contribution to the community, i.e. volunteered time, financial contribution, or any other support.

Other areas in which the nominee excels may also be considered and you are encouraged to attach letters and other reference material in support of the nominee. Conversely, not all areas listed above will apply to all nominated business and may be left blank on the form.

Answer only those questions that apply to the nominee. Unanswered questions will NOT have a negative effect on the nomination. If more space is needed to answer questions, please attach additional pages.
